tour of the Center's Signers' Hall, an iconic interpretation of the Assembly Room where the signers of the Constitution met, as well as the Center's core exhibition, The Story of We the People, and the Senate Chamber of Congress Hall, where the Bill of Rights was ratified.

The Bill of Rights Day webcast is the second installment of the Center's Constitution Hall Pass series. The first installment debuted on Constitution Day, September 17, 2010, focusing on the Constitutional Convention and featuring a special introduction by Justice Sandra Day O'Connor.

Those visiting the National Constitution Center in person on December 15 can learn about the Bill of Rights during a fast-paced, interactive game show, "Who wants to be a 'Bill-ionaire?'" The show will take place in the Center's Grand Hall Lobby at 10:00 a.m., 12:00 p.m., and 2:00 p.m. At 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., visitors can take a special tour of Signers' Hall to learn about the history of the Bill of Rights and why it was left out of the original U.S. Constitution.

About the National Constitution Center

The National Constitution Center, located at 525 Arch St. on Philadelphia's Independence Mall, is an independent, nonpartisan, nonprofit organization dedicated to increasing public understanding of the U.S. Constitution and the ideas and values it represents. The Center serves as a museum, an education center, and a forum for debate on constitutional issues. The museum dramatically tells the story of the Constitution from Revolutionary times to the present through more than 100 interactive, multimedia exhibits, film, photographs, text, sculpture and artifacts, and features a powerful, award-winning theatrical performance, "Freedom Rising." The Center also houses the Annenberg Center for Education and Outreach, which serves as the hub for national constitutional education. Also, as a nonpartisan forum for constitutional discourse, the Center presents – without endorsement – programs that contain diverse viewpoints on a broad range of issues. For more information, call 215.409.6700 or visit www.constitutioncenter.org.
